

OUTREACH EXPO

Name of Submitter: Courtney Behrle

Submitter Email: cbehrle@ncbionetwork.org

Presentation Title: Biotech on a Budget

BioNetwork has a shared public folder available upon request. Inside this folder are several highly affordable activities and resources that connect biotechnology to careers.

Inside the folder, you will find various activities that include a teacher's guide, student guide and often a PowerPoint presentation. All of the activities use "kitchen" science, meaning the materials can usually be found at a grocery store, Walmart, Amazon or similar retailers. Examples from the folder include strawberry DNA extraction, DIY electrophoresis and simulated immunoassays.

Presentation Target:

Middle School
